

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Palmer Electric Wins Contract for McLane Suneast

WINTER PARK, FLA., February 1, 2007 – Palmer Electric Co. was chosen by Construction Management Technology, Inc. of Addison, Texas, to provide electrical contracting services for the McLane Suneast Candy Distribution Center and dock expansion in Kissimmee, Fla. The 103,621-square-foot building is located on 1818 South Poinciana Blvd. Palmer's scope of services includes pre-construction, site electrical, building electrical, installation of a 2,000 kilowatt emergency generator and low-voltage electrical services. Texas-based McLane Company is the owner.

Mayne & Associates, Inc. of Dallas, Texas, is the architect on the project, and Summit Consultants, Inc., Ft. Worth, Texas, is providing engineering services.

###