

Palmer Electric Co. vice president named to board of Electrical Council of Florida Central Chapter

WINTER PARK, Fla., March 24, 2009 — Robert K. Vaughn has been elected to the board of directors of the Electrical Council of Florida Central Chapter. Vaughn is vice president of commercial production and a member of the board of directors at Winter Park, Fla.,-based Palmer Electric Company. He is a Licensed Journeyman Electrician in Florida and certified by Clemson University's business management training program. Vaughn has nearly three decades of experience in electrical contracting and management. He also serves as treasurer of the Academy of Construction Technologies.

About the Electrical Council of Florida

The Electrical Council of Florida is a non-profit trade association dedicated to unifying and strengthening all segments of Florida's growing electrical industry. Established in 1961, the association encourages and supports education and continuing educations, promotes safety and monitors legislative activity pertinent to the electrical industry.

About Palmer Electric Company

Palmer Electric Company is a provider of electrical contracting for commercial institutional and residential customers. Additionally, the Company provides service and repairs to utilities, businesses and consumers. Founded in 1951, the Company is headquartered in Winter Park, Fla., and has residential division offices in Lakeland and Jacksonville, Fla. The Company employs a staff of 350. For additional information, visit <http://www.palmer-electric.com>.