Palmer Electric Ranked Among Top Specialty Contractors in Southeast

WINTER PARK, Fla., August 21, 2006 – Southeast Construction, a leading regional trade magazine, published its sixth annual ranking of Specialty Contractors in its August issue with Winter Park, Fla.,-based Palmer Electric Co. coming in at number 63. Palmer made the survey posting 2005 revenues of $37.5 million for fiscal year ending September 30, 2005.

“It’s great to be recognized within the industry, however, we believe our success comes from clients that come back to us year after year for the service they receive from our team,” said Tom Beard, President/CEO, Palmer Electric.
